

EONI Dialup Modem Access Numbers

This report was last updated: 13-Jul-09 05:05 PM

Users of EONI's dialup network are required to dial and connect to the extended network with their username followed by @eoni.com for example: somedialppusername@eoni.com

It is recommended that you configure your email software to use "SMTP authentication" in your email software on their outgoing SMTP server. Otherwise an error message like: "relaying denied" may occur.

EONI is not responsible for additional charges associated with calling any access numbers from any location. Long distance, pay phone surcharge, hotel fees, taxes and surcharges may apply depending on the origination of the telephone call. Normally users dialing up should seek to use phones that do not charge these extra charges to keep the cost to the user low.
